To whom it may concern,

Tina Jakoeb from Erasmus University of Rotterdam, has successfully participated in the Global Volunteer Program of AIESEC Rotterdam. She participated for 6 weeks in the project of AIESEC in New Delhi. The board of AIESEC Rotterdam supports that Tina Jakoeb has been subjected to a challenging volunteering experience, aimed to develop leadership skills.

Tina Jakoeb was enthusiastically involved during the preparations of her adventure abroad. The preparation consisted of three sessions: expectation setting, goal setting and formalities. These sessions gave the appropriate tools through AIESEC's Leadership Development Model.

During her time abroad, Tina Jakoeb has been involved in many activities, such as (teaching, creating content and organizing extracurricular events). After the project, a reintegration session was organized in order to review the goals and lessons learned.

We would like to thank Tina Jakoeb for the work that has been done in order to positively impact the global community. Her commitment and eagerness to learn keeps inspiring us to pursue our goal of engaging every young person in the world to develop leadership qualities.

Sincerely,

President of AIESEC Rotterdam

Mirjam de Groot

Vice President Global Volunteer
